Charity Purpose: The Northern Youth Project was founded in the summer of 2009 by a group of local youth and supporting community members as an answer to staggering statistics of high school dropout rates, teen substance abuse, academic under-achievement, depression, diabetes, and lack of teen services in rural northern New Mexico.

Collectively we have set out to “be the change” in our community by providing an opportunity for teens to initiate projects they want to do, focusing on their interests, and engaging in hands-on activities driven by their passion and leadership.

Our projects use art, agriculture, community service, and leadership training as a platform for youth to develop skills that will better their health, academic performance, and personal investment in their communities and the environment, for a brighter tomorrow is the hands of today.
